

ENGAGING ALL STUDENTS

In the World Language Classroom

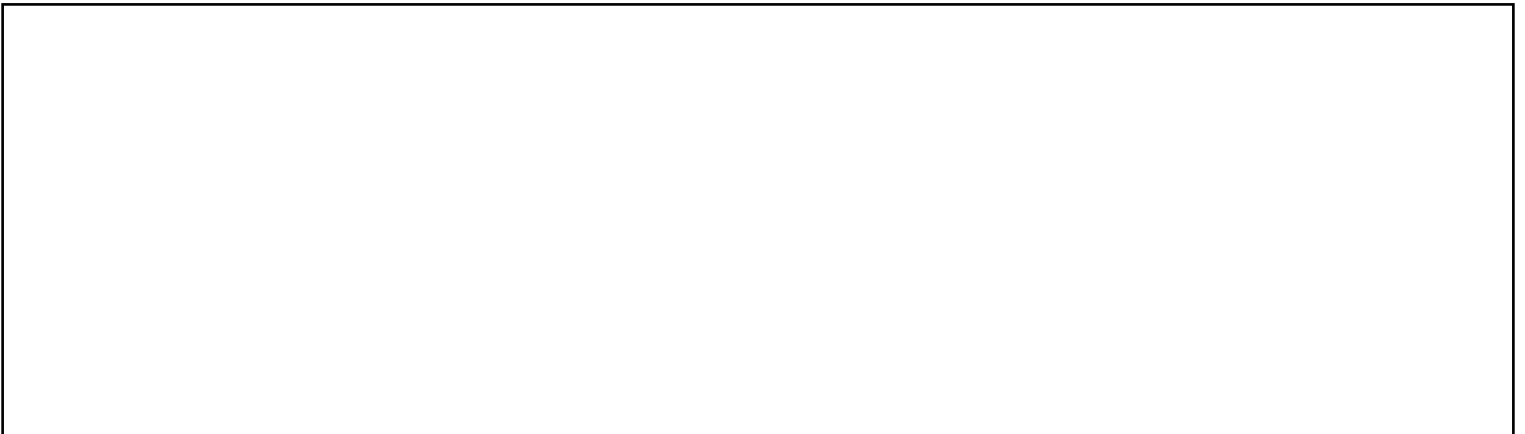

Teachers respond to students' needs by making intentional instructional decisions about content, grouping, and teaching approaches using a menu of key strategies based on formative student data collected through observation, student self-assessment, and student products and performances.

Key Strategies

Varied Approaches

Scaffolds and Supports

Flexible Grouping

Choice

Tiering

