Scenario

Your mother's friend has offered that your family use her timeshare in Martinique. You have been there for a few days and you've discovered that going out to restaurants regularly is too expensive. You have decided that you need to cook for yourselves, but you are very confused about where to buy the groceries that you need. You are the only person who speaks French in your family and you stop by the concierge desk to ask for help. Nobody is there so you decide to leave a note or write an email when you return to your room.

You should consider including:

- A greeting and opinion statement about Martinique
- A statement about why you are writing a note/email
- A list of foods and drinks that you need to buy
- Ask where to buy the items you need
- Tell how the concierge can reach you
- A closing

Please be sure to include any other relevant information that you are able to share.
